Qualifications

Please describe your relevant analytical skills.

As part of my undergraduate and graduate degree it was required that I read and interpret statistical data from research projects conducted. In working as an administrative assistant for a political party I was able to learn a great deal about the city of Austin and it's many county's, precincts, and districts. I currently work in the Planning and Research Division of Travis County HHS&VS which affords me the opportunity to validate information received by our planning staff and review contracts. Much of the information I work with is entered (by me) and edited in Excel. I am also familiar with canvassing and reading maps from my experience working with a political party.

Please describe your ability to be impartial.

I am a strong communicator that has worked with and for a diverse group of people. I tend to be an objective thinker and I like to hear the entire story before I can make an informed decision. In studying criminal justice you find that it is imperative that you remain impartial if you want to follow the law and or have a successful career. This is why choose to not be considered on either side of the fence politically. I like to look at every candidate equally, assessing all information before casting my vote.

Please describe your appreciation for the City of Austin's diverse demographics and geography.

I am from a small city Michigan and have lived in Austin since 2006. It is one of the most diverse cities demographically I have lived in. I appreciated the want for equal representation for all Austinites! It's certainly what peaked my interest in understanding the impact of redistricting and understanding how census data is an important part of the process.

Please provide any other information you wish to be considered during the selection of the most qualified applicants for the Commission.

I would just like to state that this is a great opportunity for the community to be involved in. I know that if selected I would definitely be a great asset to the commission. I certainly hope you consider me and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

DISCLAIMER

By submitting this application, I understand that I am giving the City Auditor permission to release my information to the public. In particular, I affirmatively consent to the release of the contact email address I have provided.

If I am appointed, my address, contact phone number and contact email address will be included on the City of Austin's website.

I understand my application is public information under the Texas Public Information Act. The information will be kept according to the City Auditor's records retention policies.

I understand that my participation on the Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission is voluntary.

I understand the duties and terms of service for the Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission as described above.

Under penalty of law, I swear or affirm that the preceding information in this application is in all things true and correct.
